Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 23-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamagishi et al. (US 5,535,008).

Regarding claims 23-26, Yamagishi discloses and meets the limitations associated with a medium, corresponding method and apparatus for recording and reproducing the data structure as disclosed on the medium, wherein the medium or memory (col. 9, disk/CD), comprises data structures for recording and reproducing a bit stream comprising or including an I frame (MPEG),

medium having, method and apparatus for recording and reproducing, wherein the data structure comprising:

o management information area (Fig. 7 E, "I Frame Access Information");

Art Unit: 2616

o an object area for recording a data object using data packets (Fig. 7 A);

wherein both the management information and one of said data packs is configured to include access information for accessing the I picture (Fig. 7 E, "I frame access data", col. 17, line 57 to col. 18, line 45, and col. 14, lines 18-).

Furthermore, the claimed apparatus and method of recording and reproducing the medium in view of the medium having the data structure the recording to the medium is also met by Yamagishi by creating the data structure to the medium, wherein MPEG GOP video is recorded and reproduced to and from the medium with the data structure as shown, wherein the management information or I frame access data, is used to access the I frames with corresponding access information being sector numbers, wherein the management and data packs include sector numbers as access information to selectively access the I pictures (Fig. 7 E), as described in cols. 1-2, as disclosed.

In addition in accord to the apparatus claim the art applied further meets the limitations of a first and second reproducer met by the read head reading or reproducing the data corresponding to the record information, object and management data in accord to perform reproduction locating I frames with management data in order to perform trick or special {FF, FR}, reproduction operations.
